

FESTA DE LA MÚSICA CORAL

1. The Orfeó Català-Palau de la Música Foundation announces the organization of the “Festa de la Música Coral”, a choral music competition, that retake the original idea of the Catalan music festival organized by the Orfeó Català Choir between 1904 and 1922.
2. The “Festa de la Música Coral” is created to support and encourage coral creation internationally, as it did at that time the Orfeó Català, and also to recover and disseminate the Catalan choral heritage in a common space for all the Catalan choral family, represented by the Orfeó Català and FCEC (Catalan Federation of Choirs).
3. The “Festa de la Música Coral” announces a new contest of choral composition of international scope and includes within it the Composition Competition of the Catalan Federation of Choirs (FCEC) -the International Prizes "Catalunya" of Choral Composition– that emphasize the composition of original songs with Catalan text and also the new harmonization of traditional Catalan songs.
4. The 1st International Choral Music Competition “Festa de la Música Coral” is focused on the creation of new choral music with a high level of demand for both amateur and professional choirs. The composition competition of the Catalan Federation of Choirs (FCEC) - the International Prizes "Catalunya" of Choral Composition- is allocated to compositions of low to medium difficulty.
5. Both editions have different processes, jury and prizes and will hold several categories, shown below.
6. The “Festa de la Música Coral” will take place at the Palau de la Música Catalana on February 28 2016 at 18pm. On this day it will take place the awards delivery and the release of the winning works in the context of a concert which will be invited choirs affiliated at the FCEC. The “Festa de la Música Coral” and the resulting choral composition competition will take place every two years.
